On Giving Religious Intolerance its Due: Prospects for Transforming Conflict in a Post-S In their groundbreaking anthology, Steve Clarke, Russell Powell, and Julian Savulescu are bringing together leading evolutionary and non-evolutionary scholars to debate Religion, Intolerance, and Conflict (Oxford University Press 2013). Two of the editors start by outlining the "scientific and conceptual investigation" of the book. Then Harvey Whitehouse explores the effects of religious ritual on (in-)tolerance, distinguishing rare and traumatic from frequent and routinized ones.
